Celebration of World Environment Day: Like every year the World Environment Day was observed on 5th June. Keeping in mind time table and convenience of the teachers the sapling programme was carried out within the college campus. Principal Dr. Ghanshyam Nath , teachers , students, including NSS cadets were present in the event . After the sapling program, the light freshmen were served.

Though field trip could not be organized because of unavoidable reason, but popular talk and quiz competition were some of the events organized by the department to make the students more competitive and make aware especially about environment among the students.

The department of Economics organized felicitation program on “Fresher’s Day” to felicitate the students scoring more than 80% marks in HS Final examination. The prizes were distributed by the Principal Dr. Ghanashyam Nath and faculty members of the economics department.
