The 165th Rabindra-Jayanti Programme organised by the Department of Bengali and IQAC of K.C. Das Commerce College on 19 May 2026 was conducted successfully and left a meaningful impact on the college community. The event effectively fulfilled its cultural and educational objectives. Over 100 students participated with enthusiasm, presenting Rabindra Sangeet, poetry recitations, and group songs that brought Tagore's literary and musical legacy to life. These performances deepened students' connection with Bengali culture and Tagore's artistic contributions. Dr. Hrishikesh Baruah's inaugural address proved instrumental in reinforcing the relevance of Tagore's humanistic philosophy. His speech on the harmonious relationship between humanity, nature, and the divine gave students a contemporary lens to understand Tagore's vision, extending the programme beyond just cultural celebration to intellectual engagement. The programme also strengthened community bonding within the college. Active participation from teachers across departments alongside students created an inclusive environment. The collective celebration fostered a sense of unity and shared cultural pride among attendees. Overall, the event created a vibrant and joyful atmosphere that resonated throughout the campus. It successfully blended academic insight with cultural expression, leaving participants with both appreciation for Tagore's enduring ideals and memorable experiences. The programme concluded on a lively note, marking it as a successful tribute that enriched the cultural ethos of K.C. Das Commerce College.
