With the participation of 92 individuals, including students, faculty, and administrative members, the event served as a platform to express well-researched and thought-provoking ideas related to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and how Hindi can act as a medium to promote and implement them.

The speeches reflected a deep understanding of the interconnectedness between language, society, and development. Students brought forth creative and logical perspectives, emphasizing that Hindi, as the link language of India, can effectively communicate the goals and benefits of sustainable development to the masses.

The presence of an interdisciplinary jury further enriched the academic rigor of the evaluation process. Participants gained confidence and honed their public speaking skills, while attendees left with a renewed sense of pride in the Hindi language.
