Learning Language, Tradition and Culture (Bodo language)

Date: 19th November, 2022

Number of Students Involved: 50

Summary:

Following the success of the first session, a second program was conducted with the same overarching theme. This workshop further delved into the linguistic and cultural significance of the Bodo community. It provided participants with hands-on exposure to traditional practices, folk expressions, and the unique worldview embedded in the Bodo language. The initiative not only celebrated regional diversity but also encouraged students to reflect on the importance of preserving and promoting indigenous knowledge systems
