The "Anti-Superstition Day" programme was a resounding success, achieving its objectives of raising awareness and honoring the legacy of Birubala Rabha. Principal, Dr. Hrishikesh Baruah's speech on Birubala Rabha's life and struggle against superstitions inspired the audience to critically examine such beliefs within their communities. Coordinator, IQAC; Dr. Upasana Chakravarty's emphasis on the need to observe the day highlighted the importance of combating harmful superstitions, while HoD, Department of Assamese; Dr. Swapna Smriti Mahanta's discussion on the impact of these beliefs on women's lives struck a chord with many. The event saw a large turnout, with active participation from both students and faculty, reflecting the growing commitment to challenge superstition in the community. Overall, the event successfully fostered a spirit of rational thinking and awareness among all attendees.
